

DONATION GUIDELINES

Martha Sawyer Community Library, Lebanon, Maine

YES ! The library welcomes both new and used books in EXCELLENT CONDITION.

The following will be added to our collection or sold at our book sale.

Book sale proceeds are used to purchase needed new books.

- * Hardcover and paperback novels (newer best sellers or classics)
- * Non-fiction of all types : current or enduring subject matter only
- * Children's books & DVD movies
- * Audio books on CDs
- * Popular movies and How-To films on DVDs

The library CANNOT use the following:

- * VHS movies or audio books on tape
- * School textbooks for any level
- * Computer manuals
- * Reader's Digest Condensed Books
- * Magazines
- * Harlequin Romances or similar formula-written series pulp type fiction
- * Encyclopedias of any age, out-of-date reference books
- * Promotional series / sets
- * Out of date travel guides, Buyers' Guides and similar
- * Most "sets" of books - ask librarian
- * Books that have been written in or marked with "highlighter"
- * ANYTHING damaged, discolored, mildewed, water-stained, buggy or smoky-smelling

All your donations are checked over by library staff. Materials that do not fit into the library's lending and reference collection will be sold in our annual Book Sale. Unsold items will be recycled.

KEEP LEBANON READING